PETS IN THE SOCIETY PREMISES

This is in further reference to the notifications of Government on the pets in complex.

In order to furnish the formalities for keeping a pet in the Society as per the Section 399 of Delhi Municipal Act, 1957 and in accordance with the Code/Rules there are some necessary license formalities that each pet owner needs to provide to the Society Office.

In addition to this (pet issue), residents are feeding pigeons in their balconies helping its population grow. These pigeons sitting on the Parapet or flying drop their poop on the floor or parapet on the below flat causing a dirty surroundings and unhygienic balcony. It is advised to them not to feed pigeons in their respective balcony's parapets.

In another real incident in one of the societies in Dwarka, one pet dog who was freed from the hand of the owner, jumped on a fellow resident, a Scientist. As a result, to save himself he fell down, suffered brain injury, and died within a week. A mere carelessness by a pet dog owner has costed a precious life of a renowned Scientist. So, we request pet owners to be careful while roaming with their pet.

Understanding that not every pet owner would be able to go to Delhi Municipal Corporation, we are pleased to inform you that Veterinary Official of Delhi Municipal Corporation, Delhi have website to help in completion of certain formalities enabling them to get a Valid License issued.
